To Live / A Book Of Yuhua (Chinese Edition)

Synopsis

The book 'To Live' narrates the life stories of a country man called Fu Gui. He was born into a very rich family but he loved gambling. Eventually, he lost all his possessions and became poor. His father died after knowing this, while his mother became seriously ill. Fu Gui went to find a doctor but was forced to join the army on the way. Many years later, after many trials and hardships, Fu Gui went back home and found his mother had passed away while his wife had brought up his son and daughter on her own. Unfortunately, misfortune struck this family again. Fu Gui's wife, son, daughter and grandson died one by one. It was only Fu Gui and an old bull who remained alive. Despite all, Fu Gui was still braver, calmer and more alive than ever.

Customer Reviews

Really well written, better than the movie. Highly recommended for those who are learning Chinese, as the prose is simple but profound.

Very good read. It's amazing how much pain a person can tolerate, make people reflect and learn to appreciate their lives.
