Atlanta: Then And Now

Synopsis

Atlanta Then and Now is a captivating chronicle of history and change since the dawn of the camera age. It pairs historic photographs, many over a century old, with specially commissioned views of the same scene as it exists today showing the evolution of Atlanta. The capital of the New South, Atlanta blends the old-Southern charm and hospitality of its history with the fast pace and energy of the modern millennial city. With comprehensive data about the city's evolution, this new compact edition of Atlanta Then and Now is the perfect take-along size for locals and tourists alike. Whether you're a city slicker or a nature lover, this book offers stunning views of everything from sculpted skylines to wooded drives and green spaces. Stroll through the water jets of the Fountain of Rings, part of Centennial Olympic Park "21 acres of green space" created for the 1996 Olympic Games. Visit the historic Biltmore Hotel and see how it has been renovated into office, retail, and residential space.

Customer Reviews

Purchased this book for my dad, an Atlanta native. He loved it! Makes a great gift for any Atlanta dweller, and is quite a bit of fun to look at.

If you are from Atlanta, you will love this book. Lots of history about that specific area. Very interesting and detailed.

This book shows pictures of Atlanta from way back and from the same vantage point now. It is quite interesting.

I bought this as a gift for a friend in Montana. Also got the "Gone with the Wind" book. These are the first 2 books for his new Bed and Breakfast. He loved it. That's all that matters.

Excellent book that anyone interested in Atlanta history should have. We have shared it with guests and they are very interested as well. Highly recommended.

I work near 5 Points in Atlanta, so I enjoy looking at these photos to see what the city once looked like.

Just Fantastic.. I Love seeing old buildings then and now. This book does not disappoint.. Well done..

this book is great. I got for a friend whos retiring from construction in the ATL area and he loved it
