This didn't really tell you anything you didn't already know if you are a true Harry Potter fan that has paid attention to what you were reading or watching, but there are some obvious errors to pick up on. The first one was calling Wormtail Wormtounge... wow... get it right. The second is slightly less obvious but anyone could have easily picked up on it. In the section about Ron it said after the battle of Hogwarts before joining Harry as an Auror he went to help Fred and George run Weasley's Wizzard Wheezes. But as you all know Fred died in the 7th book, so he was only helping George. So don't waste your time and money, you can find it all online for free

I think that this book has some great facts but some mistakes are in it. For example Wormtongue instead of Wormtail. You need to research better

Totally sucked. Almost none of the facts were new to me. Only like 201 of them any way. Maybe I was expecting too much but I was hoping jk Rowling wrote it and I would learn more about her symbolism and what she was going through while she wrote the books. Instead some dudes some random dudes wrote it who heard from the media fandom facts. So my bad for not doing research on the book before hand.

Short, most facts are either simple comparisons of the books and movies, or the full names of characters and actors. There are many spelling and grammatical errors that make it hard to follow at times. Overall, it's not worth it.

Very cute little book. I purchased it as a gift but had to read through it before I wrapped it. It has some really fun facts about the Harry Potter series. Highly recommend it Fun book for Harry Potter Fans!

I got this for my sister because she loves Harry Potter a lot I mean A LOT when she saw it she was super happy. The next day she is sitting next to me reading the book and says "this book is stupid" turns out they spelled many charater's names wrong and it had bad grammar, she never read it again.

I wouldn't call this a book - at best it's a pamphlet. Most definitely not worth the price. Sending back.

Sorry, but I can only write what my grandchild told me about the book. It was a present from me to her birthday. She loves the book and knows parts of it by heart and was telling me about the story, that I felt, she likes it so much.
