Philosophy And Opinions Of Marcus Garvey [Volumes I & II In One Volume]

Synopsis

2014 Reprint of Two Volume Edition, First Published from 1923 to 1926. Full facsimile of the original edition. Not reproduced with OCR. This collection of Garvey's writing remains the most famous collection of Garvey's speeches and essays. Marcus Garvey and the "Universal Negro Improvement Association" form a critical link in black America's centuries-long struggle for freedom, justice, and equality. As the leader of the largest organized mass movement in black history and progenitor of the modern "black is beautiful" ideal, Garvey is now best remembered as a champion of the back-to-Africa movement. In his own time he was hailed as a redeemer, a "Black Moses." Though he failed to realize all his objectives, his movement still represents an attempt at liberation from the psychological bondage of racial inferiority.

Most people have very wrong impression of this historical character. Read his philosophy as an adult, without the comentary from anglo-biased created history books we all read in public schools, then form your opinions about racial conditions in America and the world today. You might be surprised how much ahead of his time Mr. Garvey proceeded.

Marcus Garvey is one of the most influential leaders for African liberation from the hold of systematic white supremacy and his philosophical stance is tremendous and empowering!
